

Question: What is the primary objective of the dress code policy at Translab Technologies?

- (A) To promote fashion trends
- (B) To ensure employees maintain a professional appearance
- (C) To increase work hours
- (D) To reduce office distractions

Answer: (B)

Question: Which of the following is not considered acceptable business casual attire?

- (A) Dress shirts
- (B) Skirts
- (C) Tank tops
- (D) Khakis

Answer: (C)

Question: On which day are neat jeans typically permitted?

- (A) Mondays
- (B) Fridays
- (C) Wednesdays
- (D) Sundays

Answer: (B)

Question: Why is overly vibrant clothing discouraged?

- (A) It is too expensive
- (B) It may cause distractions
- (C) It fades easily
- (D) It violates health policies

Answer: (B)

Question: Which of the following footwear is generally unacceptable?

- (A) Loafers
- (B) Flip-flops
- (C) Closed-toe shoes
- (D) Dress shoes

Answer: (B)

Question: What is the policy on sarees in the workplace?

- (A) Any type of blouse is acceptable
- (B) Transparent sarees are encouraged
- (C) Only sarees of non-transparent material with modest blouses are allowed
- (D) Sarees are not permitted

Answer: (C)

Question: Why might employees be notified in advance about certain attire?

- (A) Due to seasonal changes
- (B) For team-building activities
- (C) For specific events or client meetings
- (D) To advertise sales

Answer: (C)

Question: Which of the following is an unacceptable top under the policy?

- (A) Blouse
- (B) Halter top
- (C) Collared shirt
- (D) Sweater

Answer: (B)

Question: Which clothing is prohibited for exposing undergarments?

- (A) Cardigans
- (B) Transparent clothing
- (C) Jackets
- (D) Jeans

Answer: (B)

Question: What aspect of clothing is emphasized for general appearance?

- (A) Bright colors
- (B) Loose fit
- (C) Clean and well-fitted condition
- (D) Matching accessories

Answer: (C)

Question: What is the company's stance on personal expression?

- (A) It is completely restricted
- (B) It is encouraged with no limitations
- (C) It is supported, provided it aligns with professionalism
- (D) Only on weekends

Answer: (C)

Question: Which of these would violate the layering guideline?

- (A) Blazer
- (B) Cardigan
- (C) Crop top over blouse

(D) Light sweater

Answer: (C)

Question: What does "modesty" in clothing primarily refer to?

(A) Wearing designer brands

(B) Avoiding exposure of body parts

(C) Wearing only black or grey

(D) Avoiding bright patterns

Answer: (B)

Question: Why are offensive graphics on clothing banned?

(A) They are costly

(B) They violate intellectual property

(C) They may disrespect others

(D) They are hard to wash

Answer: (C)

Question: What attire is permitted on fitness-related days?

(A) Jeans and sneakers

(B) Workout leggings and sweatpants

(C) Swimwear

(D) Halter tops

Answer: (B)

Question: Which type of jeans are acceptable?

(A) Torn and faded

(B) Overly distressed

(C) Neat and well-fitted without rips

(D) Low-rise

Answer: (C)

Question: How should clothing demonstrate respect in the workplace?

(A) By following the latest fashion

(B) By being modest and non-provocative

(C) By showing company logos

(D) By matching the office furniture

Answer: (B)

Question: What is the purpose of avoiding overly casual attire?

(A) To support tailors

(B) To encourage online shopping

(C) To maintain a professional environment

(D) To reduce laundry

Answer: (C)

Question: Which of the following is considered a distraction?

(A) Solid-colored blouse

(B) Flashy, noisy clothing

(C) Blazer

(D) Cardigan

Answer: (B)

Question: Which of these items is not explicitly listed as acceptable footwear?

(A) Sandals

(B) Dress shoes

(C) Closed-toe shoes

(D) Loafers

Answer: (A)

Question: Under what conditions are sneakers allowed?

(A) Only during events

(B) If clean and not overly casual

(C) If worn with a suit

(D) Never

Answer: (B)

Question: What role does HR play in the dress code policy?

(A) Selling company uniforms

(B) Approving personal fashion choices

(C) Providing clarification on dress code concerns

(D) Organizing clothing drives

Answer: (C)

Question: What is NOT a requirement for acceptable attire?

(A) Comfort

(B) Appropriateness

(C) Flashiness

(D) Professionalism

Answer: (C)

Question: The dress code policy strives to balance what two elements?

- (A) Uniformity and diversity
- (B) Expression and suitability
- (C) Sales and savings
- (D) Fashion and fabric

Answer: (B)

Question: Which of the following is not acceptable, even on casual days?

- (A) Well-fitted jeans
- (B) T-shirts with offensive graphics
- (C) Clean sneakers
- (D) Light jackets

Answer: (B)

Question: When might athletic attire be acceptable?

- (A) During Monday meetings
- (B) On designated casual or fitness days
- (C) When working from home
- (D) Only if branded

Answer: (B)

Question: What does the policy recommend avoiding to reduce workplace distractions?

- (A) Plaid shirts
- (B) Fashionable watches
- (C) Noisy or overly vibrant clothing
- (D) Black shoes

Answer: (C)

Question: What does the policy suggest for added comfort and style?

- (A) Flip-flops
- (B) T-shirts
- (C) Light layers like sweaters or blazers
- (D) Hats

Answer: (C)

Question: What message does respectful attire communicate?

- (A) Indifference
- (B) Fashion knowledge
- (C) Professionalism
- (D) Rebellion

Answer: (C)

Question: Why are midriff-exposing tops discouraged?

- (A) They cause allergies
- (B) They require ironing
- (C) They are not considered modest or professional
- (D) They are too colorful

Answer: (C)