

Question: What is the main purpose of the Referral Bonus Policy at Translab Technologies?

- (A) To reduce training expenses
- (B) To encourage employees to refer qualified candidates
- (C) To hire family members
- (D) To replace external hiring agencies

Answer: (B)

Question: When is a referral bonus paid to an employee?

- (A) Immediately after interview
- (B) After the referral is shortlisted
- (C) After the referred candidate completes 60 calendar days of service
- (D) On the same day of joining

Answer: (C)

Question: Who is not eligible to receive a referral bonus?

- (A) Senior developers
- (B) Human Resources and Management
- (C) Team leads
- (D) Remote employees

Answer: (B)

Question: What must an employee submit to HR for a referral to be valid?

- (A) An audio recording
- (B) A LinkedIn profile link only
- (C) A resume or employment application via email
- (D) A reference letter from a manager

Answer: (C)

Question: Within how many months should the referred candidate be hired to qualify for the bonus?

- (A) 6 months
- (B) 1 month
- (C) 3 months
- (D) 12 months

Answer: (C)

Question: What kind of candidates is Translab looking for through the referral program?

- (A) Only freelancers
- (B) Qualified and talented individuals
- (C) Family of employees
- (D) Internal transfers

Answer: (B)

Question: Who is eligible for the referral bonus if multiple employees refer the same candidate?

- (A) The candidate chooses
- (B) HR department
- (C) The first person who referred the candidate
- (D) Anyone who interviewed the candidate

Answer: (C)

Question: When does the bonus become payable?

- (A) After completion of 90 working days
- (B) Once the candidate joins
- (C) After 60 calendar days of service
- (D) On the day the offer letter is signed

Answer: (C)

Question: How should referrals be submitted?

- (A) Verbally to HR
- (B) Through WhatsApp
- (C) Through an internal form
- (D) By emailing HR with a resume or application

Answer: (D)

Question: What does the policy say about confidentiality in hiring?

- (A) Hiring details can be shared with the team
- (B) Only managers will know the status
- (C) All information regarding hiring decisions remains confidential
- (D) Referring employees will be updated every step

Answer: (C)

Question: What happens if the referred candidate is hired after 3 months from the referral?

- (A) No bonus is given
- (B) Bonus is halved
- (C) Bonus is doubled
- (D) Bonus goes to HR

Answer: (A)

Question: What is the eligibility criteria based on role for receiving a referral bonus?

- (A) Only on-site employees qualify
- (B) Remote employees are excluded
- (C) Business Unit Directors and Management are excluded
- (D) Only HR interns qualify

Answer: (C)

Question: Why does the company promote referrals?

- (A) To save on relocation costs
- (B) To speed up project delivery
- (C) To find great people through trusted sources
- (D) To reduce the number of applicants

Answer: (C)

Question: What should be attached along with the referral email?

- (A) Offer letter
- (B) Resignation letter
- (C) Resume or employment application
- (D) ID proof

Answer: (C)

Question: How does the policy define the referral time limit?

- (A) 1 month
- (B) 2 weeks
- (C) 3 months from the referral date
- (D) 6 months from posting the job

Answer: (C)

Question: What determines who gets the referral reward if more than one person refers the same candidate?

- (A) Role seniority
- (B) The employee with more experience
- (C) The first employee to submit the referral
- (D) Department of the candidate

Answer: (C)

Question: Is the bonus paid before the referral completes 60 days?

- (A) Yes
- (B) No
- (C) Only on management approval
- (D) It varies

Answer: (B)

Question: How will the HR evaluate referred candidates?

- (A) Based on relationship with the employee
- (B) Based on bonus amount offered
- (C) As per organization's policies and procedures
- (D) Based on who referred them

Answer: (C)

Question: Can a Business Unit Director refer and earn a bonus?

- (A) Yes, always
- (B) Only with HR's permission
- (C) No, they are excluded
- (D) Only if they're new in the role

Answer: (C)

Question: What format of resume submission is accepted?

- (A) Hard copy only
- (B) Through WhatsApp
- (C) Sent via email to HR
- (D) Printed and dropped in the HR box

Answer: (C)

Question: What happens if a candidate leaves before completing 60 days?

- (A) Employee gets a partial bonus
- (B) No bonus is paid
- (C) Bonus is paid early
- (D) HR shares a portion of it

Answer: (B)

Question: Can someone refer a candidate without a resume?

- (A) Yes
- (B) No
- (C) Only if the role is open
- (D) Only with team lead approval

Answer: (B)

Question: Why is it important to track the referral submission date?

- (A) To avoid duplicate entries
- (B) To qualify within the 3-month window
- (C) To determine candidate age
- (D) To know their expected salary

Answer: (B)

Question: What does the referral program NOT guarantee?

- (A) A fair hiring process
- (B) Automatic job offer for referred candidates
- (C) Confidential hiring evaluations
- (D) Referral bonus payment after 60 days

Answer: (B)

Question: What happens if two employees refer the same person?

- (A) HR randomly picks one
- (B) The team decides
- (C) The first referral is eligible
- (D) Both are paid equally

Answer: (C)

Question: What makes a referral valid?

- (A) Being in the same department
- (B) A phone call to HR
- (C) Submitting through the official channel with resume
- (D) The referred candidate being a friend

Answer: (C)

Question: How does Translab ensure fairness in evaluating referrals?

- (A) By letting referring employees take interviews
- (B) By evaluating all candidates through company policy
- (C) By asking senior staff to vote
- (D) By giving preference to known candidates

Answer: (B)

Question: When does an employee lose referral bonus eligibility?

- (A) If they refer someone from the same department
- (B) If the referral doesn't join
- (C) If the candidate is hired after 3 months from the referral
- (D) If they work remotely

Answer: (C)

Question: What is emphasized about all hiring decisions?

- (A) Referring employees can influence hiring
- (B) All decisions will be public
- (C) All hiring decisions are confidential
- (D) Referred candidates have priority

Answer: (C)

Question: What is the primary factor in determining the referral bonus amount?

- (A) The referred candidate's location
- (B) The referred candidate's total experience
- (C) The number of people referred
- (D) The referring employee's performance rating

Answer: (B)