

Question: What is a condition for employment at Translab Technologies?

- (A) Completing 6 months of training
- (B) Signing the confidentiality agreement only
- (C) Accepting the Code of Conduct policy
- (D) Registering with HR portal

Answer: (C)

Question: Who is expected to follow the Code of Conduct?

- (A) Only full-time employees
- (B) Contractors and clients only
- (C) All employees, board members, consultants, and others working for the company
- (D) HR and management only

Answer: (C)

Question: What may happen if someone fails to follow the Code of Conduct?

- (A) They will be reassigned
- (B) They receive a warning letter
- (C) They may face disciplinary action or termination
- (D) They get transferred to another department

Answer: (C)

Question: How should violations of the Code be reported?

- (A) Through social media platforms
- (B) By telling coworkers
- (C) Promptly to management or HR
- (D) By writing an anonymous blog post

Answer: (C)

Question: What protection is offered to whistleblowers?

- (A) Financial incentives
- (B) Travel reimbursements
- (C) Freedom from retaliation
- (D) Performance bonus

Answer: (C)

Question: What type of work environment is Translab committed to fostering?

- (A) Fun and casual
- (B) Results-driven

- (C) Free from harassment, bias, and discrimination
- (D) Strict and hierarchical

Answer: (C)

Question: What is Translab's stance on harassment and discrimination?

- (A) Allowed only for managerial roles
- (B) Allowed under informal settings
- (C) Strictly prohibited
- (D) Only regulated by team leads

Answer: (C)

Question: What is the policy on substance abuse?

- (A) Allowed only at off-site events
- (B) Zero-tolerance
- (C) Permitted with manager approval
- (D) Allowed during breaks

Answer: (B)

Question: What can managers request if they suspect someone is impaired at work?

- (A) Immediate leave
- (B) Counseling
- (C) Alcohol or drug screening
- (D) A letter of apology

Answer: (C)

Question: What is the policy on outside employment that competes with the company?

- (A) Permitted freely
- (B) Must be approved by finance
- (C) Considered a conflict of interest
- (D) Encouraged for skill growth

Answer: (C)

Question: What should employees do when they suspect a conflict of interest?

- (A) Ignore it unless asked
- (B) Post about it on forums
- (C) Disclose it and seek HR guidance
- (D) Resolve it independently

Answer: (C)

Question: What is required when giving or receiving gifts or entertainment in business?

- (A) Only report if it's expensive
- (B) Accept all gifts as courtesy
- (C) Evaluate for conflict of interest
- (D) Avoid and report every instance

Answer: (C)

Question: What is the restriction on post-employment client engagement?

- (A) No restrictions
- (B) Employee can join a client immediately
- (C) Must wait six months before joining a client they worked with
- (D) Can join any client with approval from HR

Answer: (C)

Question: What is emphasized about handling confidential information?

- (A) Store in personal drives
- (B) Share only through chat
- (C) Handle responsibly and share only with authorized individuals
- (D) Print and store at home

Answer: (C)

Question: What is required before making business-related external disclosures?

- (A) Posting on LinkedIn
- (B) Permission from friends
- (C) Appropriate approvals
- (D) Feedback from the team

Answer: (C)

Question: What are employees prohibited from using company equipment for?

- (A) Breaks and browsing
- (B) Business tasks only
- (C) Personal use without authorization
- (D) Project planning

Answer: (C)

Question: What must employees do when using corporate electronic systems?

- (A) Save personal photos
- (B) Share access with others

- (C) Exercise caution and know activity may be monitored
- (D) Customize system UI

Answer: (C)

Question: What should employees do if there's a suspected breach of network security?

- (A) Reset their password
- (B) Post about it
- (C) Report to their supervisor immediately
- (D) Turn off the Wi-Fi

Answer: (C)

Question: What kind of personal data does Translab store?

- (A) None, all data is anonymous
- (B) Only financial records
- (C) Personal information of employees worldwide
- (D) Health records only

Answer: (C)

Question: What law-related areas must employees be familiar with?

- (A) Education law and housing
- (B) Trade, bribery, and government relations
- (C) Traffic law
- (D) Consumer rights

Answer: (B)

Question: What kind of conduct is expected in business dealings?

- (A) Passive and silent
- (B) Aggressive when required
- (C) High ethical standards
- (D) Only technical accuracy

Answer: (C)

Question: How does the policy address bribery?

- (A) Acceptable if under ₹500
- (B) Only for client retention
- (C) Strictly forbidden in all contexts
- (D) Legal in some departments

Answer: (C)

Question: How are intellectual property rights treated?

- (A) Optional unless asked
- (B) Can be copied if for internal use
- (C) Must be respected at all times
- (D) Ignored for older content

Answer: (C)

Question: What should be done if someone suspects misuse of IP?

- (A) Tell a friend
- (B) Report to HR
- (C) Post it on social media
- (D) Investigate independently

Answer: (B)

Question: What is the policy's guidance regarding personal investments?

- (A) Encouraged in competing firms
- (B) Allowed if profitable
- (C) Must not lead to a conflict of interest
- (D) Exempt from disclosure

Answer: (C)

Question: How are company assets expected to be used?

- (A) For home office
- (B) For business purposes only
- (C) For leisure when workload is light
- (D) With team approval

Answer: (B)

Question: What is the company's approach to integrity?

- (A) Optional for juniors
- (B) Situational based on projects
- (C) Integral to all actions and decisions
- (D) Only required during reviews

Answer: (C)

Question: When should employees speak up?

- (A) Only during exit
- (B) Only if instructed

- (C) When they observe unethical behavior
- (D) Never unless it's about their manager

Answer: (C)

Question: Where should employees go for clarification on the Code of Conduct?

- (A) Friends or peers
- (B) Social media
- (C) Managers, HR, or Legal
- (D) Past employees

Answer: (C)

Question: Why are disclosures to external parties restricted?

- (A) To maintain project momentum
- (B) To prevent misunderstandings
- (C) To safeguard confidential business communication
- (D) To reduce documentation

Answer: (C)

