

Question: What is the main goal of the PIP policy at Translab Technologies?

- (A) To encourage employees to resign
- (B) To prepare employees for promotions
- (C) To help employees improve performance in a measurable way
- (D) To replace non-performing employees with new hires

Answer: (C)

Question: Who initiates the PIP process?

- (A) HR Team only
- (B) Legal Department
- (C) Reporting Manager with inputs from employee and HR
- (D) Finance Department

Answer: (C)

Question: When does the PIP policy come into effect?

- (A) 1st April 2024
- (B) 19th February 2024
- (C) 1st January 2024
- (D) 1st March 2024

Answer: (B)

Question: Who does the PIP policy apply to?

- (A) All employees
- (B) Trainees only
- (C) Employees performing above expectations
- (D) Employees with performance below acceptable parameters

Answer: (D)

Question: What is the standard duration of a PIP period?

- (A) 60 days
- (B) 15 days
- (C) 30 days
- (D) 90 days

Answer: (C)

Question: What is the maximum extension allowed beyond the initial PIP duration?

- (A) 30 days
- (B) 7 days

(C) 15 days

(D) 45 days

Answer: (C)

Question: What happens once an employee exits PIP?

(A) They are promoted

(B) They're given a bonus

(C) They remain under observation for 6 months

(D) They are transferred

Answer: (C)

Question: What happens if performance does not improve after PIP and observation period?

(A) Employee is warned again

(B) Employee is moved to another team

(C) Immediate termination without notice

(D) A new PIP is initiated

Answer: (C)

Question: What action should the manager take before initiating a PIP?

(A) Inform Legal

(B) Get CFO approval

(C) Notify HR

(D) Create a payroll revision

Answer: (C)

Question: What must be used to document the PIP formally?

(A) WhatsApp message

(B) Verbal agreement

(C) PIP Form or HRMS Template

(D) Handwritten notes

Answer: (C)

Question: How is a formal PIP communicated to the employee?

(A) Announcement on intranet

(B) Phone call from HR

(C) Formal letter or email from HR with a copy to the manager

(D) Team meeting

Answer: (C)

Question: How frequently must the Reporting Manager review performance during PIP?

- (A) Daily
- (B) Every week
- (C) Every two weeks
- (D) Monthly

Answer: (B)

Question: What are the possible review outcomes of weekly assessments?

- (A) Termination only
- (B) Resignation or warning
- (C) Satisfactory, partial, or no improvement
- (D) Bonus, hike, or leave extension

Answer: (C)

Question: What is the next step if an employee scores 3 out of 5 in the final PIP review?

- (A) Termination
- (B) Second PIP of 30 days
- (C) Second PIP of 15 days
- (D) Promotion

Answer: (C)

Question: What happens if an employee gets a rating of 1 or 2 out of 5?

- (A) Warning letter
- (B) Transfer to another team
- (C) Immediate termination
- (D) Extend PIP

Answer: (C)

Question: What rating allows the employee to continue without change?

- (A) 2 out of 5
- (B) 3 out of 5
- (C) 4 out of 5
- (D) 5 out of 5

Answer: (D)

Question: What should a manager include in the initial PIP documentation?

- (A) Random HR reports
- (B) Hobbies of the employee
- (C) Specific areas of improvement with examples
- (D) Salary details

Answer: (C)

Question: Who reviews and approves the PIP plan before implementation?

- (A) Only CEO
- (B) Manager's peer
- (C) Reporting Manager and HR
- (D) IT Team

Answer: (C)

Question: What is not considered during PIP performance review?

- (A) Level of improvement
- (B) Communication skills
- (C) Team popularity
- (D) Adherence to action plan

Answer: (C)

Question: What must employees do if personal circumstances affect performance?

- (A) Inform their peers
- (B) Remain silent
- (C) Inform their manager
- (D) Request salary hike

Answer: (C)

Question: What is the role of the manager during a PIP?

- (A) Observe quietly
- (B) Document without discussion

- (C) Provide feedback and support
- (D) Avoid direct contact

Answer: (C)

Question: When can an employee be terminated without another PIP?

- (A) After one failed project
- (B) If they fail after being under observation post-PIP
- (C) If a peer complains
- (D) After probation ends

Answer: (B)

Question: What is the consequence of violating the PIP policy?

- (A) Transfer
- (B) Bonus reduction
- (C) Disciplinary action up to termination
- (D) Demotion only

Answer: (C)

Question: Who must approve changes or exceptions to the PIP policy?

- (A) Line Manager
- (B) Employee's peers
- (C) Management and Legal/Compliance
- (D) External auditor

Answer: (C)

Question: What must be specified in the PIP feedback plan?

- (A) Employee birthday
- (B) Promotion date
- (C) Review frequency and measurement criteria
- (D) Favorite training topics

Answer: (C)

Question: When closing a PIP, who communicates the final decision?

- (A) Legal only
- (B) Employee's mentor
- (C) Manager and HR
- (D) Admin team

Answer: (C)

Question: What tool may be used for PIP documentation?

- (A) Feedback spreadsheet
- (B) Whiteboard
- (C) HRMS Portal
- (D) Shared WhatsApp group

Answer: (C)

Question: What does a rating of 4 out of 5 indicate?

- (A) Re-initiate PIP
- (B) Employee to be terminated
- (C) Provide feedback and explore development opportunities
- (D) Force resignation

Answer: (C)

Question: What is emphasized about communication in the PIP process?

- (A) Kept confidential from the employee
- (B) Should be indirect
- (C) Should be clear and continuous
- (D) Only one-way

Answer: (C)

Question: What is the employee's responsibility once placed under a PIP?

- (A) Request to work remotely
- (B) Escalate to legal immediately
- (C) Take the plan seriously and work toward performance enhancement
- (D) Wait for a second warning

Answer: (C)

