

Question: What is the effective date for discontinuation of the general Work From Home policy?

- (A) July 1, 2023
- (B) August 30, 2023
- (C) January 1, 2024
- (D) September 15, 2023

Answer: (B)

Question: Under what conditions can WFH be approved after the policy change?

- (A) Employee lives far from office
- (B) Bad weather only
- (C) Exceptional and rare circumstances only
- (D) Every Friday by default

Answer: (C)

Question: Which of the following is not considered an acceptable reason for WFH?

- (A) Serious health issues
- (B) Urgent family matters
- (C) Personal errands
- (D) Extraordinary events

Answer: (C)

Question: Who must the initial WFH request be submitted to?

- (A) HR directly
- (B) IT helpdesk
- (C) Reporting Manager
- (D) Team Members

Answer: (C)

Question: What should be included in the WFH request?

- (A) Doctor's note only
- (B) General reason with no details
- (C) Detailed explanation, expected duration, and job responsibility plan
- (D) Screenshot of Zoom attendance

Answer: (C)

Question: Who gives final approval for WFH after manager review?

- (A) Admin team
- (B) HRBP

- (C) Next level of management
- (D) Project team

Answer: (C)

Question: What is required of employees regarding timesheets during remote work?

- (A) Submit monthly
- (B) Not required
- (C) Ensure accurate timesheet submission reflecting actual hours
- (D) Delegate to a peer

Answer: (C)

Question: What is the expected availability of employees during remote work?

- (A) After 6 PM only
- (B) Whenever convenient
- (C) During regular working hours unless agreed otherwise
- (D) Flexible hours only on weekends

Answer: (C)

Question: What communication tools should employees use during remote work?

- (A) WhatsApp and Instagram
- (B) Personal emails only
- (C) Teams, email, messaging, phone
- (D) Telegram groups

Answer: (C)

Question: What is expected regarding work quality while working from home?

- (A) Quality can decrease
- (B) Less important than communication
- (C) Must be maintained as per in-office standards
- (D) Can be manager dependent

Answer: (C)

Question: What happens if an employee's WFH performance drops?

- (A) Warning letter
- (B) Remote work can be terminated
- (C) Promotion is delayed
- (D) Bonus is reduced

Answer: (B)

Question: Who is responsible for monitoring WFH performance?

- (A) Office Security
- (B) HR Team
- (C) Reporting Manager
- (D) Client

Answer: (C)

Question: Which of the following statements is true regarding changes to the WFH policy?

- (A) Changes happen silently
- (B) Employees must be informed of any policy updates
- (C) No changes will be allowed
- (D) Employees vote for changes

Answer: (B)

Question: How should a Project Manager record work after client visits?

- (A) Verbal confirmation
- (B) Share the timesheet and get it approved by the manager
- (C) Send a text message
- (D) No need to document

Answer: (B)

Question: What should employees acknowledge when submitting a WFH request?

- (A) Understanding of flexible work schedules
- (B) Understanding of WFH payment reduction
- (C) Commitment to follow the WFH policy
- (D) Request for future remote contracts

Answer: (C)

Question: What authority does the organization retain regarding WFH requests?

- (A) None, it's employee-driven
- (B) Obligation to approve if justified
- (C) Complete right to approve or deny based on internal assessment
- (D) Automatic approval if more than 2 people request

Answer: (C)

Question: What is the default status of WFH at Translab after Aug 30, 2023?

- (A) Fully allowed
- (B) Hybrid
- (C) Discontinued, allowed only under rare exceptions
- (D) Permitted every Friday

Answer: (C)

Question: Which factor is not mentioned in evaluating a WFH request?

- (A) Team collaboration impact
- (B) Personal savings
- (C) Work environment needs
- (D) Job responsibilities

Answer: (B)

Question: Can an employee independently decide to work from home?

- (A) Yes, if they notify their peer
- (B) No, must go through formal approval
- (C) Only if HR is informed
- (D) If they have been with the company over 3 years

Answer: (B)

Question: What is the company's position on policy changes?

- (A) Changes are discouraged
- (B) Changes are only legal when posted online
- (C) Company reserves the right to modify policies
- (D) Only external consultants can suggest changes

Answer: (C)

Question: What happens if an employee works remotely without approval?

- (A) Nothing, if they finish work
- (B) Reimbursement is stopped
- (C) It can result in disciplinary action or cancellation of arrangement
- (D) They will be moved to another project

Answer: (C)

Question: How should remote employees stay in sync with their teams?

- (A) Weekly surveys
- (B) Through calendar blocks only
- (C) Regular communication via approved channels
- (D) Standalone work reports

Answer: (C)

Question: Which of the following is a key aspect of the WFH policy?

- (A) Weekend reporting
- (B) Clear explanation of exceptional circumstances
- (C) Fitness tracking
- (D) Office seating plan

Answer: (B)

Question: When does the WFH policy allow flexibility in work hours?

- (A) Every second Friday
- (B) If agreed with the reporting manager
- (C) On alternate weeks
- (D) On a trial basis

Answer: (B)

Question: What is the policy's approach to remote work responsibilities?

- (A) They can be shifted to teammates
- (B) Responsibility is shared with the team
- (C) Employee remains fully responsible for performance
- (D) Only tracked monthly

Answer: (C)

Question: What type of documentation is emphasized for WFH approvals?

- (A) Hard copies
- (B) Formal request with detailed reasoning
- (C) WhatsApp screenshots
- (D) Email thread with jokes

Answer: (B)

Question: What action is required from employees after WFH is granted?

- (A) Request another week
- (B) Notify clients
- (C) Maintain communication and update timesheets
- (D) Create backup of documents

Answer: (C)

Question: Who can deny a WFH request even after reporting manager's approval?

- (A) Client representative
- (B) Peer reviewer
- (C) Next level of management
- (D) Training lead

Answer: (C)

Question: What should a WFH plan not compromise?

- (A) Travel
- (B) Commute hours
- (C) Timeliness and quality of work
- (D) Use of personal devices

Answer: (C)

Question: What does submitting a WFH request mean legally?

- (A) Demand for flexibility
- (B) Agreement to reduce pay
- (C) Acknowledgment of company terms and guidelines
- (D) Hint toward resignation

Answer: (C)

