

Translab Technologies Travel Policy

Revision Control

Date	Version	Author	Change Description
04.04.2023	1.0	Shirshendu Bikash Mandal & Shriyanshi Kumari	Initial version
30.07.2024	1.1	Amandeep & Shriyanshi

Table of Contents

1	Purpose	4
2	Applicability.....	4
3	General Rules	4
4	Categories of Business Travellers	4
5	Permitted Travel and Accommodation	5
5.1	Permitted Modes of Inter-City Travel	5
5.2	Permitted Modes of Intra-City Travel (Inside Base Location)	5
5.3	Permitted Grades of Accommodation.....	6
6	Travel Expenses.....	6
6.1	Per Diem	6
6.2	Relocation Allowance.....	7
6.3	Base Location Transfer.....	7
6.4	Food on Travel.....	7
6.5	Business Meal.....	8
7	Salary Advance.....	8
	Travel and Accommodation Booking Process.....	9
7.1	Guidelines for travel Booking.....	9
7.2	Guidelines for Hotel Booking.....	10
8	Reimbursement.....	10
9	Guest House Policy.....	11

1 Purpose

This policy sets the general guidelines for business travel and its reimbursement.

2 Applicability

This policy applies to all the employees and interns.

3 General Rules

1. As a part on your employment in Translab, all employees and interns are expected to travel and/or relocate as per business requirements.
2. This travel policy does not cover the following:
 - a. Regular commute between home and work (whether Translab office or customer site).
 - b. Any relocation from employee's or intern's current city/town/village of residence and Translab work location as mentioned in offer letter.
 - c. Any travel that is not related to business.
 - d. Anyone accompanying an Translab employee or intern in business travel.
3. Always opt for cheapest mode of travel and/or accommodation permitted.
4. If Translab has a guest house at the destination of business travel, preferred accommodation will be the guest house.
5. All travel must be approved by reporting manager of the employee/intern. Any exception to the regular travel policy must be approved by manager's manager.

4 Categories of Business Travellers

Level	Designation
Level 0	Client
Level 1	Director, CXO
Level 2	VP, AVP, Solution Architect
Level 3	Sales / Pre-sales
Level 4A	Senior Technical Specialist/Executive/Lead
Level 4B	Junior Technical Specialist/Executive/Lead
Level 5	Intern

5 Permitted Travel and Accommodation

5.1 Permitted Modes of Inter-City Travel

Mode of Travel	Level 0	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Level 4A	Level 4B	Level 5
Air (Business Class)	Y	N	N	N	N	N	N
Air (Economy Class)	Y	Y	Y	Y	Y	Y (>800km)	Y (>800km)
Railway / Bus	Y	Y	Y	Y	Y	Y	Y (<800km)

5.2 Permitted Modes of Intra-City Travel (Inside Base Location)

Mode of Travel	Level 0	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Level 4A	Level 4B	Level 5
Cab	Y	Y	Y	Y	Y	Y	Y(>15KM)
Auto	N	N	N	Y	Y(<15KM)	Y(<15KM)	Y(<15KM)

- Intra-city travel covers pick-up and drop-off services to and from the airport or station at the traveler's base location.
- The Technical department can claim expenses for base location client visits with exceptional approval from the leadership team.
- The Sales Department (Level 3) can claim pick-up and drop-off expenses for travel to the airport or railway station. However, they cannot claim expenses for client visits at the base location and for travel between Translab branch offices.

5.3 Permitted Grades of Accommodation

Level	Daily Room Rent Limit		Hotel Star Grades
	Meal Inclusive	Meal Exclusive
Level 0	INR 6000	INR 5500	5 stars
Level 1	INR 6000	INR 5500	3-5 stars
Level 2	INR 5000	INR 4500	3-4 stars
Level 3	INR 3000	INR 2500	3 stars
Level 4A	INR 3000	INR 2000	3 stars
Level 4B	INR 2500	INR 2000	3 stars
Level 5	INR 2000	INR 1800	3 stars

Note: If Translab has a guest house at the destination of business travel, preferred accommodation will be the guest house.

6 Travel Expenses

6.1 Per Diem

- For project allocations lasting up to 2 weeks, the company will provide a per diem as follows:

Level	Per Diem
Level 4A	INR 700
Level 4B	INR 600
Level 5	INR 500

- Base Location is defined as the area within a 30-km radius of an employee's or intern's designated place of work, where they routinely perform their duties.
- An employee or intern can only have one designated base location.
- Per diem payments are never made in advance.
- Employees at Levels 1, 2, and 3 are not eligible for per diems.
- Per diems are not provided for travel between Translab branch offices; they are only applicable for travel to client sites outside of the employee's or intern's base location.

6.2 Relocation Allowances

- For Project Allocation exceeding 2 weeks and less than 3 months, we will offer a Fixed Monthly Allowance based on the city of relocation.
- This amount must be claimed via the HRMS Portal and supported by an email request. The relocation allowances are as follows:

Cities		Relocation Allowance (Monthly)
Metro Cities	For instance: Bengaluru, Mumbai, Hyderabad, Chennai, Delhi, Kochi etc	INR 15,000
Non-metro Cities	For Instance: Thrissur, Machilipatnam, Jammu etc	INR 12,000

6.3 Base Location Transfer

Employees required to stay at a client location for over three months will undergo a base location transfer.

6.4 Food on Travel

Level	Permitted Limit per day
Level 1	Actuals or INR 4000, whichever is lower
Level 2	Actuals or INR 2000, whichever is lower
Level 3	Actuals or INR 1000, whichever is lower

- Food on Travel is in lieu of per diem for Levels 1, 2 and 3.
- This involves food expense during overnight stay that does not involve non-Translab individuals.
- Food on travel does not cover alcohol. If alcohol is served, it should be on a separate bill.
- Level 4A, 4B and 5 are not permitted to food on travel.

6.5 Business Meal

Level	Permitted Limit per Meal
Level 1	Actuals or INR 10000, whichever is lower
Level 2	Actuals or INR 4000, whichever is lower
Level 3	Actuals or INR 2500, whichever is lower

- A business meal is defined as meal/food purchase that involves a substantive and bonafide business discussion with customers, vendors, or partners.
- It is not applicable for Level 4A, 4B and 5.
- Prior management approval is needed. For approval, following details are required:
- Guest names along with designation and contact.
- Business opportunity and revenue being discussed.
- Business meal does not cover alcohol. If alcohol is served, it should be on a separate bill.
- Receipt and management must be submitted for reimbursement.
- If charges contain alcohol or exceed the allowable rates, the overage must be borne by the employee.
- Maximum business meal in a day is 1.
- Same customer cannot be entertained for two consecutive days.

7 Salary Advance

- Salary advance is applicable for those whose overnight travel involves more than 3 days of travel.
- Salary advance will be adjusted with upcoming salary amount.
- The salary advance request should be made 3 business days prior the date of travel.
- Request should be made on Keka (HRMS Portal).
- The minimum salary advance is INR 5000 and maximum is INR 10000.

8 Travel and Accommodation Booking Process

8.1 Guidelines for Ticket Booking

- The traveller/ Reporting Manager / Project Manager must inform Travel Desk / HR Team 4-5 days prior to date of travel, stating the business case for such travel.
 - Exceptions can be made for shorter notice period with approval from manager's manager.
 - The request should be done through the Travel Request Form mention days and time of travel, destination and origin, accommodation required, etc.
 - Once the request from filled HR will send the cost approval to the Higher Management.
 - Any out of policy travel must be approved by manager's manager.
- Booking a special Hotel/Flight/Seat/Web Check-in is not allowed for the traveller falling within level 3 to level 5.
- Bookings must be done by HR/Travel Desk, with few exceptions.
 - New Joinee is responsible for booking their own arrangements within the budget set by the HR Team. Subsequently, they can submit expense claims through the HRMS Portal
 - Exceptions can be made in case of urgent travel, where the traveller can book tickets on their own. However, this necessitates separate approval from the manager, and communication must be initiated with the HR/Travel Desk.
 - They are expected to use the lowest logical fare available only.
 - Any amount more than permitted limit will be borne by the traveller.
 - The booking amount must be claimed through the Keka (HRM Portal) along with relevant approvals and receipts.
- The number of days will be counted from the time of departure till the time of arrival.
- An employee cannot combine business travel with personal travel.
- In case of any cancellation and extension done to the already planned business tour, the employee must inform the travel manager.
 - In case the cancellation is due to mistake on part of the traveller, it must be borne by the traveller.
- The most economical means of transportation must be chosen while commuting from home to the airport and vice versa.
- The employee can use the personal vehicles for business travel (within 800km) in case it is more economical than other means of transportation. The amount spent by the employee on fuel can be reimbursed on actual. However, before the start of travel, approval needs to be taken from Reporting Manager

- In case a traveller is accompanied by another traveller from higher level, request can be made to upgrade them to the same level.
- Employee cannot avail higher class facility than their own entitlements/classification.
- Any arrangement made over and above the limitation the same will be deducted from employee salary.

8.2 Guidelines for Hotel Booking

- Hotel booking must be made only if there is no guest house available at the destination.
- Hotel booking must be made by HR/Travel Desk, with few exceptions.
 - New Joiner is responsible for booking their own stay arrangements within the budget set by the HR Team. Subsequently, they can submit expense claims through the HRMS Portal.
 - In case, the traveller is making own arrangements, they are expected to do so with prior manager approval using least expensive accommodation and hotel policy.
 - Overcharges will be borne by traveller.
- Accommodation does not cover any usage of additional paid hotel services, like laundry, mini-fridge products, spa, etc.
- Rooms will be booked on twin-sharing basis.
- Exception will be made when travellers are of opposite sex.
- It is done along with the ticket booking by the travel manager only.
- Translab will try to include breakfast and dinner in the hotel room bookings.

9 Reimbursement

- All reimbursement will be through Keka (HRMS portal).
- Only claims with relevant receipts and approvals will be accepted.
- Reimbursement will be made till permitted limits only. Overages will be borne by traveler.
- Reimbursement will be paid with the upcoming salary.

10 Guest House Policy

- Access to the guest house requires prior approval from the Reporting Manager/ Project Manager and Employees must initiate the stay request through the HR Team/Travel Desk, providing necessary details such as the purpose of stay and duration.
- The permissible time duration for temporary stays is limited to 5 days only (Inclusive check-in and check-out date).
- Extensions are not permitted without higher management approval; employees requesting an extension must formally submit their request via email to the HR Team/Travel Desk, and approval is subject to business needs and managerial discretion.
- The guest house premises exclusively accommodate employees, and it is imperative for employees to ensure that no friends or relatives accompany them during their stay.
- Employees must personally manage their belongings and are advised to avoid leaving any valuable items unsecured in the guest house; if necessary, use locks for added security.
- Employees are required to responsibly utilize guest house facilities, uphold restroom cleanliness, and monitor and minimize unnecessary use of electricity (such as lights, fans, and AC units). Additionally, employees are urged to be mindful of water consumption.
- Upon arriving at the guest house property, promptly report any damages to the designated personnel. Additionally, guests are responsible for covering the costs of any damages incurred during their stay at the guest house.